MOTION CARRIED.

Administrative Reports

Administrators from each building submitted their reports to the Board of Education for their review. Each report included past events in the month of September and October, plus upcoming events for staff and students.

Superintendent's Report

Our Varsity boy's football team is still undefeated at 7-0. They will play at Addison this Friday night. Regardless of the outcome, we are league champions and will play in the crossover league championship on October 22nd, which is a Saturday at Union City most likely at 1 p.m.

Quick reminder that the High School Marching Band will be performing their halftime show for the Marching Band Festival at Northwest High School at 7 p.m. this Saturday, October 15th.

On Sunday at 4 p.m. the High School Choir will be performing at the Jackson College Choral festival.

We are very pleased to see our student count in at 1,318. Our percent increase was the most in Jackson County as most districts lost students.

Quick reminder about Senior Parent's night for Varsity Volleyball, coming up October 25th. Parents and student athletes will be introduced between the JV and Varsity Volleyball games, sometime between 6 and 6:15 p.m.

Board Report

Jeff McLain reminded the board that he will be attending the annual MASB conference in Traverse City on October 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

Heather Swaenepoel attended the JCASB monthly meeting, which was held at Columbia Central High School. Heather explained that it was very informative in talking with board members districts throughout Jackson County. The next JCASB meeting will be held at Grass Lake High School on December 3rd.

The ISD will be hosting CBA classes for area board members to take while at the ISD on January 21, 2023.

Adjournment

MOTION by DAVIS, supported by CALLAHAN, that the Board meeting be adjourned. All Ayes. BREINING absent. MOTION CARRIED.

The meeting adjourned at 7:22 p.m.

James Callahan, Secretary
