Superintendent's Report

The Varsity football team won the crossover championship, beating Union City 15-0. They finished the season 9-0.

We will host a play-off game this Friday night at 7 p.m. We will host Erie-Mason who has a 6-3 record. The winner will then play the winner of Grass vs Manchester. If we can win Friday, then we would host the game on the following Friday.

Middle School basketball began today. There were 16 eighth graders and about 15 seventh graders at tryouts today.

This Thursday, the league Volleyball Tournament will be at Michigan Center, starting at 4 p.m.

We also host the Cross Country Regional this Friday afternoon at Ella Sharp Park in Jackson.

Mike McGonegal will give us an update on our 98C grant for learning loss.

Michel McGonegal provided a presentation to the Board regarding 98B, which included a spreadsheet. This spreadsheet provided the numbers of students in each grade, K through 5th grade, that were tested.

Board Report

Member Jeff McLain reported his attendance at the annual MASB Delegate Conference, in Traverse City, this past weekend. Jeff explained to the board that it was very informative and he was able to attend various CBA classes, while at the conference.

Adjournment

MOTION by DAVIS, supported by SWAENEPOEL, that the Board meeting be adjourned. All Ayes.
MOTION CARRIED.

The meeting adjourned at 7:34 p.m.

James Callahan, Secretary
